

Eye of RA

Gaia Epicus

I am RA the king of gods
The creator of everything
As a pharaoh I rule the earth
In the sky and the underworld

I am the sun, I am the moon
And my power is divine
People say I'm old and weak
The eye of RA they will meet

The king of gods, The eye of RA
I am a pharaoh, I am a god
I rule the land and sea, I rule the sky
I rule the underworld, I will never die

I throw my eye, into the sky
The transformation has begun
A lioness I will create
And she will drink your blood with hate

Down on earth she has arrived
The hunt for man has begun
You can run, but cannot hide
Cause I'm the all seeing eye
