

Different Kind Of Love

Gala

You turn me out
You look away
Deny me day by day
A feeling I can't fight

You never dare
To cross that line
Afraid that you might find
Life's not black and white

It used to be so simple
It used to be so true
The world was
So much brighter
When I was with you

You and me
A different kind love
Call it what you want
But it's still love
We wouldn't be apart
If you listened
To your heart
You and me
A different kind of love

There's sadness in your eyes
Your freedom's caught in lies
Beneath your bourgeois smile

Yeah
You finally got your way
Your world is neat and safe
You've been bored for a while

It used to be so simple
It used to be so true
The world seemed
So much brighter
When I was with you

You and me
A different kind of love
Call it what you want
But it's still love
We wouldn't be apart
If you listened
To your heart
You and me
A different kind of love
