

Deceptive Vistas/postscript - Perspective

Galahad

The countdown to change is almost over soon you'll be wandering what the fuss was all about Looking out across the harbour in the twilight hours at a beautiful vista of light so calm and so serene yes so calm and so serene Deceptive, isn't it

Postscript - Perspective
I'm thankful for the great times
Respectful of the bad
For it's those that put perspective
On the good life I now have

I'm thankful for the great times
Respectful of the bad
For it's those that put perspective
On the good life I now have....
