

One Cry

Galantis

One cry
One cry

Marching to the drum of your broken heartbeat
And the world is weighing on you so you drag your feet, yeah
One more breath until you fall into sweet tragedy
But the battle in your heart says, "Won't you stay?"

One cry for the lonely baby
One cry for the brokenhearted
This one's for the hopeless dreamers
Do you hear me now?
One cry for the lonely baby
One cry for the brokenhearted
This one's for the hopeless dreamers
Do you hear me? Do you hear me?

One cry for the
One cry for the
One cry for the brokenhearted
One cry for the
One cry for the
One cry for the brokenhearted

Tired of running faster than the speed of sound
And you're reaching for the clouds, gravity pulls you down, yeah
One more fight to save your life, don't you surrender
Then the battle in your heart says, "Won't you stay?"

One cry for the lonely baby
One cry for the brokenhearted
This one's for the hopeless dreamers
Do you hear me now?
One cry for the lonely baby (Cry for the lonely)
One cry for the brokenhearted (Brokenhearted)
This one's for the hopeless dreamers
Do you hear me? Do you hear me?

One cry for the
One cry for the
One cry for the brokenhearted
One cry for the
One cry for the
One cry for the brokenhearted
One more cry, one more cry
For my heartbeat
One more cry, one more cry
For the brokenhearted
One more cry, one more cry
For my heartbeat
One more cry, one more cry
For the brokenhearted

One more cry, one more cry
For my heartbeat
One more cry, one more cry
