Bend

Gallant

We gon' have to bend cuz
I'm sick of breaking hearts
Breaking hearts over you
The storm's coming through

We gon' have to bend cuz
I'm sick of breaking hearts
Breaking hearts over you
The storm's coming through

Hurricanes forming under your eyes
Gray clouds in the back of your mind
But you keep holding in how you feel
Scared if it rains, then it's real
Holding your horses
We're veering off course again
To the black and the blue
Don't hide from the truth
I'll be patient with you

But we gon' have to bend cuz
I'm sick of breaking hearts
Breaking hearts over you
The storm's coming through

We gon' have to bend cuz
I'm sick of breaking hearts
Breaking hearts over you
The storm's coming through

Neither here, nor there...

Know you're used to giving up, used to being lied to
Don't make me the wrong when I'm right behind you
Foolish to be losing sleep over cold feet
But you don't wanna hold tight
As we spin in circles over thin ice
No don't you keep no secrets from me
Or lie if it's true
I'll be patient with you, but

We gon' have to bend cuz
I'm sick of breaking hearts
Breaking hearts over you
The storm's coming through

We gon' have to bend cuz
I'm sick of breaking hearts
Breaking hearts over you

Neither here, nor there...
Neither here, nor there...
