

Compromise

Gallant

(Sorry)

I'm all alone, I'm so alone
You all alone, we all alone
You see me here, I see you there
I need somebody, I need somebody
We're so alone
We don't know what to do
I'll compromise with you
I'll compromise with you, oh
(Sorry)

Oh baby, oh baby, oh baby, I
I'll compromise with you
I'll compromise with you
I'll compromise with you

Oh baby, oh baby, oh baby, I
I'll compromise with you
I'll compromise with you
I'll compromise with you

(I need somebody to love me, yeah, yeah)

What was the point of us breaking down?
It was something
Whatever it was had caught my attention
Feel like you're feeling me
And I feel your feelings
Good thing we broke the pieces

Oh baby, oh baby, oh baby, I
I'll compromise with you
I'll compromise with you
I'll compromise with you

Oh baby, oh baby, oh baby, I
I'll compromise with you
I'll compromise with you
I'll compromise with you

(I need somebody to love me, yeah, yeah)

Our love so upfront, you turned your back
Like I analyzed you, you got upset
Heightened defense, mortal combat
Can't understand how you do me like that
You wanna pretend, you don't wanna truce
Got no Kryptonite, except for you

The thought of you spending the night with me, night with me, night
If you say you might with me, might with me, might
I'll compromise with you

(I need somebody to love me)

Oh baby, oh baby, oh baby, I

I'll compromise with you
I'll compromise with you
I'll compromise with you

Oh baby, oh baby, oh baby, I
I'll compromise with you
I'll compromise with you
I'll compromise with you

I'm all alone, I'm so alone
You all alone, we all alone
You see me here, I see you there
I need somebody, I need somebody
We're so alone
We don't know what to do
I'll compromise with you
I'll compromise with you
