

Lucid.

Gallant

Satellite losing connection, intermittent loving affair
Walked with my head in the clouds, now the ground's got me gasping for air
Shoulda never left Earth with an ego this hurt
Logic so broken and bared
Apathy tightens its grip, maybe ignorance is bliss
Maybe the cards were never in play, always just looking to fold
Maybe when we gave the universe faith, Andromeda turned up her nose
I wasn't looking for this
Just wanted a little control
Maybe I'd get it if I had collected those

Momentary highs
And faded 45s
But what's the point if I only feel alive when I'm lucid dreaming?
Lucid dreaming
Lucid dreaming

Sparkling the fuse, nuclear muse, wish I was better prepared
Keep trying to walk in Jupiter's shoes, I must be descending to madness
I wasn't looking for this
I'm a chemical creature of habit
Feel like it's fading, I wish I collected those

Momentary highs
And faded 45s
But what's the point if I only feel alive when I'm lucid dreaming?
Lucid dreaming
Atoms in my mind
Take me for a ride
So what's the use if I only feel alive when I'm lucid dreaming?
Lucid dreaming

Yeah
Lucid dreaming
Lucid dreaming
