

CRYING FOR YOU

Galneryus

In the empty days and rainy nights
Try to fill my voided heart
Calmness of sunny days, silent nights
Try to seek solace

Compassion
Tenderness
Honesty
They were not enough for you
Even if I pretend not to know
I care for you
Why didn't I do more for you?
Now you're no longer here

Memories
Hold on my heart
Surely I hear you call my name
Memories
Hold on my heart
Still left my regrets

Memories
Hold on my heart
Surely I hear you call my name
Memories
Hold on my heart
Still left my regrets

I feel like you're watching me somewhere
With eyes filled with tender love
I've been standing alone, think of you
In deep sadness

I wish I could have talked to you more
Wanted to tell you more love
Even if I pretend not to know
I care for you
Why didn't I do more for you?
Now you're no longer here

Memories
Hold on my heart
Surely I hear you call my name
Memories
Hold on my heart
Still left my regrets

Memories
Hold on my heart
Surely I hear you call my name
Memories
Hold on my heart
Still left my regrets

I feel like crying from missing you
Show me the way to walk again
Far from the sky

Blaze a trail and start again
Go forward into the distance
Blaze a trail and start again
Step out, to forget my sadness
Blaze a trail and start again
I feel the winds of tomorrow
Blaze a trail and start again
Step out, higher and higher

Blaze a trail and start again
Go forward into the distance
Blaze a trail and start again
Step out, to forget my sadness
Blaze a trail and start again
Oh, feel the winds of tomorrow
Blaze a trail and start again
I'll shed no more tears
Blaze a trail and... walking again
