

Monsterizer

Gama Bomb

I dare you to enter my palace of woe
Scarce was a man born who can stand the evil it holds
You scorn at the danger as you sign the writ
Now misshapen mutants are laughing as they throw the switch

Screamatorium
Circus of all decay
Making a beast of men

Power! Power!
Right between your eyes
Cometh the hour
Too late you realise
You're blowing the system
Ready to ride or die
No turning back now
Start the monsterizer

Raising the curtain, a carnival scene
Of carnal contortion, creations cry out so obscene
The townspeople gather to point and to laugh
But why can't they hear you as you beg behind your false mask?

Phantasmagoria
Nightmares on display
You're a star of the freak parade

Breaking the chains with hysterical might
Raging and setting the curtains alight
Your face is distorted by chemical showers
Your mind is perverted and filled with the urge for power
