

Tears of Ages

Gandalf

Did you ever read a story and feel you were there and when you hear a song of people dead and gone still you care

The crumbling of an ancient steeple the passing of a queen a young girl feeling old and feeble and dying in her dream

Oh the Tears of Ages
are here on the pages
just to explain
And the voices behind you come back to remind you that people never seem to change

A king with every wealth and treasure a pawn without a meal a man who only yearns for pleasure but what else can he feel

Oh the Tears of Ages
are here on the pages
just to explain
And the voices behind you
come back to remind you
that people never seem to change

So if you ever read a story
You know you'll be there
And when you hear a song of people dead and gone Something deep in your heart will make you care
