Garbage

A pearl is lost
A thread is found
The red-blood roses on the cold, cold ground
The boy, he dreams on a bed of bones
No more silence
No more broke
No more riding on the high-line
And no more standing on the sideline

All you got to do is save a life
Save a life
All you got to do is save a life
Save a life
It's radical

It's hard to cry
It's hard to sleep
Nothing good is ever easy to keep
Did I watch you dance in a long past dream?
The truth is so heavy, it's hard to believe
All you gotta do, you gotta do, you gotta do, you gotta
You broke my heart on the freeway
All you gotta do, you gotta do, you gotta do, you gotta
I lost my hope
All you gotta do, you gotta do, you gotta do, you gotta
Now give me something else to do 'cause I'm hurt as hell and I'm waiting on you
All you gotta do, you gotta do, you gotta do, you gotta

All you got to do is save a life
Save a life
All you got to do is save a life
Save a life
It's radical
Let all that we imagine be the light
Be the light
Let all that we imagine be the light
Be the light
It's radical
It's radical, it's radical
It's radical, it's radical
It's radical, it's radical
It's radical, cold, cold ground

Grief is love turned inside out
Grief is an honour
Grief is our right
But we need language for the small things
All you gotta do, you gotta do, you gotta do, you gotta
'Cause everything's so pretty in the morning
All you gotta do, you gotta do, you gotta do, you gotta

Let all that we imagine be the light
Be the light
Be the light
Let all that we imagine be the light
Be the light

Be the light
Let all that we imagine be the light
Be the light
Let all that we imagine be the light
Be the light
It's radical

All you gotta do, you gotta do, you gotta do, you gotta
All you gotta do, you gotta do, you gotta do, you gotta
All you gotta do, you gotta do, you gotta do, you gotta
What is lost, but now it's found
All you gotta do, you gotta do, you gotta do, you gotta
All you gotta do, you gotta do, you gotta do, you gotta
The red-blood roses on the cold, cold ground
All you gotta do, you gotta do, you gotta do, you gotta
