When everything was fine
But I know, life doesn't go, like a book
I had to learn to shine
Without your words to guide
Born again, just hide the pain, I'm doing good

If I could talk to you
Show you the life I've built
Would you still want to be next to me?
I'm giving all it takes
Even if I break
Because I know, you are here, next to me

Oh what I'd show you now
Made it in life somehow
Lost my guide, but I don't cry
Keep moving on, keep moving on
And I know I've made mistakes
They were all in good faith
I got some burns, some lessons learned
They made good songs

If I could talk to you
Show you the life I've built
Would you still want to be next to me?
I'm giving all it takes
Even if I break
Because I know, you are here, next to me
Because I know, you are here, next to me
