

Beautiful Rage

Gareth Emery

We're falling
Fading
Gonna fade out
Surrender searching
Making it count
Holding hoping
Never enough
One last moment

As the stars die out
We're burning and it's beautiful
Cause it all comes down
See the sky fall down

I'm dancing in the flames tonight
The fire heals the pain
As the stars die out
We're burning in a beautiful rage

We're falling
Fading
We're falling
Fading

As the stars die out
We're burning and it's beautiful
Cause it all comes down
See the sky fall down

We're dancing in the flames tonight
The fire heals the pain
As the stars die out
We're burning in a beautiful rage
In a beautiful rage

As the stars die out
We're burning and it's beautiful
Cause it all comes down
See the sky fall down

We're dancing in the flames tonight
The fire heals the pain
As the stars die out
We're burning in a beautiful rage
In a beautiful rage
