

Friendly Fires

Gareth Emery

I know I've been holding back from you
But you
You don't let me go
You won't let me go

Running from a past that follows me
My ghosts
Are somewhere down this road
But you're not scared of ghosts

I don't want to live my whole life
So afraid to get too close
It's always the friendly fires
That hurt the most

Maybe you are what I've waited for Cos I
I'm not freaking out
No, I'm not running now

Walking to the edge and now I'm sure
The fall
Is nothing like before
You'll all I want and more

I don't want to give my whole heart
To somebody I know who won't
It's always the friendly fires
That hurt the most

I'm ready for you now
Take it higher
Give it all
I'm ready for you now
I don't care if we fly or we fall
I'm ready to love you, yeah I know
I wasn't before
But I'm ready for you now
I'm ready for you now
Now
Now
Now
I'm ready for you now
Now
Now
I'm ready for you now

I'm ready for you now
Take it higher
Give it all
I'm ready for you now
I don't care if we fly or we fall
I'm ready to love you, yeah I know
I wasn't before

But I'm ready for you now
