

I Will Be the Same

Gareth Emery

Do you call my name
When you wake up on the floor
Do you feel me now
But your not quite sure

When you turn around
Do you wonder what you've seen
I know your thoughts have seen where you have been

I will be the same
You don't wanna be here no more
You've opened up your eyes
And you need to go

To another place
Though its dark you'll reach the shore
Time to see your find
What we're looking for

All the time will carry on
And everything will change
You can know that I will be the same

Why the tide will take us under
But nothing else remains
You can know that I will be the same

I will be the same
I will be the same
