

Sanctuary

Gareth Emery

Between the spaces where we long to be
Beyond together and alone
And at the edge where you fade into me
We find a shelter we call home

Escape the shadows that were holding me
Slip these chains of flesh and bones
And in the seconds where we know we're free
This is the place where we call home

When there's no where left to run
Run with me
Let the moment be a sanctuary

When its all that you've become
Set it free
Let this moment be a sanctuary
