

All Cried Out

Gareth Gates

Tear drops in my eyes
Came every day with the sunrise
It's been that way as long as you've been gone
I thought the day would start
Same as the others falling apart
I thought I barely would be hanging on

Something has changed, feel so strange
Swimming through an ocean of pain
Then suddenly here's the sun

Maybe I had enough of you,
Maybe I've tired of dreaming of you
Maybe I've gotten over your goodbye by now

Baby I couldn't live without you
Now when I think about you
My eyes are dry somehow
Maybe I'm all cried out
All cried out

I don't know what it is
Why I'm not longer missing your kiss
It feels mysterious and so damn good

Something is changed, feel so strange
Swimming through an ocean of pain
Then suddenly here's the sun

Maybe I had enough of you,
Maybe I've tired of dreaming of you
Maybe I've gotten over your goodbye by now

Baby I couldn't live without you
Now when I think about you
My eyes are dry somehow
Maybe I'm all cried out
All cried out

My heart has finally walked away
It's gone from the scene of the crime
It's finally found the perfect place
For leaving you far behind
Baby maybe I

Maybe I had enough of you,
Maybe I've tired of dreaming of you
Maybe I've gotten over your goodbye by now

Baby I couldn't live without you
Now when I think about you
My eyes are dry somehow
Maybe I'm all cried out
Maybe I had enough of you,
Maybe I've tired of dreaming of you
Maybe I've gotten over your goodbye by now

Baby I couldn't live without you
Now when I think about you
My eyes are dry somehow
Maybe I'm all cried out
Maybe I had enough of you,
Maybe I've tired of dreaming of you
Maybe I've gotten over your goodbye by now

Baby I couldn't live without you
Now when I think about you
My eyes are dry somehow
Maybe I'm all cried out
