

Silver Lining

Garfunkel and Oates

You gotta get up in the morning
No matter what happened last night
He ripped your heart out without warning
But there's only one thing to do
No matter what you're going through

Get up out of bed
Right foot, left foot moving
Get out of your head
Soon you'll be improving

You'd see the sun outside is shining
If you would only open up your eyes
Haven't you heard of silver lining?
And if he never felt that way
Why would you want him to stay?

When you have come so far
From the place you started
Just be the girl you are
Although you're brokenhearted

Deep down you knew that it was wrong
That little voice was telling you the truth
He was an asshole all along
And now you hear it loud and clear
Screaming right in to your ear

Get up out of bed
Get out of your head
Soon you'll be improving

And it doesn't matter why he's gone
It only matters that he's gone
And soon it's plain to see
That you're better than that
So get out your bat
And bash his memory

You gotta get up every morning
Even if it has to be alone
He ripped your heart out without warning
But now you have the whole day on your own
