

Dumb

Garrett Kato

Give me a moment to process
Give me a moment to regress
From what I said to you last night
You know I couldn't have meant it
I know I shouldn't have left it
But here I am again I'm sorry

Is it just something I should have known then?
Maybe it's the way things go then
All of this time I wouldn't have minded
All the things I wish I said

I know it's dumb
But we've been here before and
I know it's late
But I can walk you through it
Wherever you would wanna go
Wherever you would wanna go

Give me a second to reset
Give me a moment to forget
All the things that I've done wrong
You know I couldn't have changed it
You know I wouldn't have blamed it
On you now that I'm so sorry

Is it just something I should have known then?
Maybe it's the way things go then
All of this time I wouldn't have minded
All the things I wish I said

I know it's dumb
But we've been here before and
I know it's late
But I can walk you through it
Wherever you would wanna go
Wherever you would wanna go

I know it's dumb
But we've been here before and
I know it's late
But I can walk you through it
Wherever you would wanna go
Wherever you would wanna go
