

Hard Times

Garrett Kato

Chasing memories
Lately I've been floating away
Pull me closer
So I can hold ya

Growing distance
Some kind of strange resistance
Growing older
Wish I could hold ya

Find it hard to breathe
When you're next to me

Moving through hard times
When did we fall apart?
Buried in our minds
Laying the dark
Soon enough we'll forget who we are
Who you are to me
Who you are, laying in the dark

Holding on to
Kinda hard to see through
Broken pieces
Underneath this

Wordless nightmares
Trying hard to not care
And empty talking
Of words unspoken

Moving through hard times
When did we fall apart?
Buried in our minds
Laying the dark
Soon enough we'll forget who we are
Who you are to me
Who you are, laying in the dark

Find it hard to breathe
When you're next to me

Moving through hard times
When did we fall apart?
Buried in our minds
Laying the dark
Soon enough we'll forget who we are
Who you are to me
Who you are, laying in the dark
