

Where The Vampires Hide

Garrett Kato

One, two, three, four

Everybody knows
Tryin' hard but I just can't let this go
Who I was to you back then

I remember drinkin' one too many
Sinkin' into time
Remind myself the reasons why
You're the one that let's me inside
Tryin' to recover what I'll never find

I think I'll be alright
I don't care how much it hurts
I think I'll be alright
Yeah, I remember feeling worse
Without you

No one knows
The time it takes to heal a broken soul
Can't be a prisoner no more

I remember taking one too many
Losing my mind
Fightin' those demons where the vampires hide
You're the one who kept me in line
Tryin' to remember who I am this time

Think I'll be alright
I don't care how much it hurts
I think I'll be alright
Yeah, I remember feelin' worse
Without you
