

White Flag

Garth Brooks

I say black, you say white
I say day, you call it a night
What's wrong with this scene
What does this mean

You set me up, shoot me down
I'm wounded on this battleground
It's time for sure, for ending this war
'Cuz my heart can't take anymore

Sendin' up, sendin' up, sendin' up a white flag
Love won't have a chance if all we do is just fight about it
Sendin' up, sendin' up, sendin' up a white flag
Damn these circumstance, love is headed for a fall
So before we lose it all, oh baby, I'm sendin' up a white flag

Place no blame, what's the use
Lay these weapons down and call a truce
Can't we, work it out
(Can't we, work it out)
'Cuz I love you, baby, ain't no doubt
Isn't that what love's about

Sendin' up, sendin' up, sendin' up a white flag
Love won't have a chance if all we do is just fight about it
Sendin' up, sendin' up, sendin' up a white flag
Damn these circumstance, love is headed for a fall
So before we lose it all, oh baby, I'm sendin' up a white flag
A white flag, a white flag

You know my heart can't take it

Sendin' up, sendin' up, sendin' up a white flag
Love won't have a chance if all we do is sit around and fight about it
Sendin' up, sendin' up, sendin' up a white flag
Damn these circumstance, love is headed for a fall
So before we lose it all, oh baby, sendin' up a white flag
Sendin' up a white
A white flag

Sendin' up, sendin' up, sendin' up, sendin' up
(A white flag)
Sendin' up, sendin' up, sendin' up, sendin' up
(A white flag)

Sendin' up, sendin' up, sendin' up, sendin' up
(A white flag)
Sendin' up, sendin' up, sendin' up man, sendin' up man
(A white flag)

Sendin' up, sendin' up, sendin' up, sendin' up
(A white flag)
Sendin' up, sendin' up, sendin' up, sendin' up
(A white flag)

Sendin' up, sendin' up, sendin' up, sendin' up
(A white flag)

Sendin' up, sendin' up, sendin' up man, sendin' up man
(A white flag)

Sendin' up, sendin' up, sendin' up, sendin' up
(A white flag)
Sendin' up, sendin' up, sendin' up, sendin' up
