

Supernatural

Gary Barlow

This love, this love is supernatural
This love, this love is supernatural

This love, this love is supernatural
It's a full suit, never casual
And it makes my voice sing
Shoo-bee-doo-bee-doo
Wop-wop-wop, bang, bang

This love, this love is unmistakable
It's a heavyweight and unshakable
Always makes me wanna sing
Boogie-boogie-boo
Wop-wop-wop, bang, bang

It's already begun
And the crowd's been waiting too long
Let me put these words into song
With a four, three, two, one

Hear my heart go boom, boom, boom
Watch my mouth say wow, wow, wow
Nothing I can do, do, do
And there's no way out, out, out
Hear the glasses smash, smash, smash
As the lights go down, down, down
Don't get if you never ask
Watch me as a fall
This love is supernatural

This love, this love is supernatural

This love is truly supernatural
Oh beware, 'cause it's untamable
And it makes my voice sing
Bang, bang, bang
Doo-bee-doo-pow-wow
When you have love that's holy, magical
Nothing else, you really have it all
Always makes me wanna sing
Boom, boom, bap
Boom-ah-de-bang, bang

The feeling is strong
And we know where it's coming from
The countdown now has begun
A ten, nine, eight, seven, six, five, four, three, two, one

Hear my heart go boom, boom, boom
Watch my mouth say wow, wow, wow
Nothing I can do, do, do
And there's no way out, out, out
Hear the glasses smash, smash, smash
As the lights go down, down, down
Don't get if you never ask
Watch me as a fall
This love is supernatural

This love, this love is supernatural

If you want danger, friend or enemy
If you want crazy nights or therapy
If you want rain or endless blue skies
I can see it's gonna be alright
If you want loving like you've never seen
If you want it all and nothing in between
If you want noise, it won't be too long
'Cause it's gonna explode in five, four, three, two, one

Hear my heart go boom, boom, boom
Watch my mouth say wow, wow, wow
Nothing I can do, do, do
And there's no way out, out, out
Hear the glasses smash, smash, smash
As the lights go down, down, down
Don't get if you never ask
Watch me as a fall
This love is supernatural

(This love is supernatural)
Oh, it's crazy, it's phenomenal
Once in a lifetime thing, sensational
It's amazing, it's magical
Nothing else, you really have it all
It's wild and unpredictable
Can't you see this love, this love is supernatural?

This love, this love is supernatural
This love, this love is supernatural
