

The Big Bass Drum

Gary Barlow

Tell me if there's room there dancing next to you
Am I moving in too soon baby, baby?
Lost inside the music, deceptive and elusive
The brightest thing I've seen baby, baby
It's not until you die that you know you've been alive
You won't know it till you've tried maybe, maybe

Every Saturday you dance the night away
Is there any way that we could do this every single day?

And the big bass drum goes boom, boom, boom
And the big bass drum goes bang, bang, bang
The cutest smile, the softest lips
The longest legs, the highest kicks
When the big bass drum goes boom, boom, bang, bang, bang
It sounds like this
It sounds like this

Every twist and move, finding rhythm in the groove
Touching every part of you baby, baby
Like sunshine through the clouds, only body and a sound
There's no way to work it out baby, baby

Every Saturday we do this all again
It's impossible to watch you and feel any other way

And the big bass drum goes boom, boom, boom (Boom, boom, boom)
And the big bass drum goes bang, bang, bang (Bang, bang, bang)
The cutest smile, the softest lips
The longest legs, the highest kicks
When the big bass drum goes boom, boom, bang, bang, bang
It sounds like this
It sounds like this

Boom, boom
Boom, boom
Hit high, hit low, bump in the middle
I'm down and out
From inside out
Boom, boom
Boom, boom
Head left, hip right, shoot to kill them
I love that sound
Hit the bass drum loud, loud, loud, loud

And the big bass drum goes boom, boom, boom (Boom, boom, boom)
And the big bass drum goes bang, bang, bang (Bang, bang, bang)
The cutest smile, the softest lips
The longest legs, the highest kicks
When the big bass drum goes boom, boom, bang, bang, bang
It sounds like this
It sounds like this
It sounds like this
It sounds like this
It sounds like this
