The Only One

Gary Barlow

(I'm the only one)

You seem to understand [?]
You seem to have so much to say and so much time to use
Life it seems to change before your eyes
The man that you once knew now seems so hard to recognise

After all this time that flew by so fast
I've got only one question to ask

Do you still feel like I'm the only one (who really loves you)
The only one to burn the flame that's deep inside
Do you still feel like I'm the only one (who really loves you)
The only one that gives you time
The only one that makes you mine
I hope I'm the only one

I'm the only one
(I'm the only one)

I take back all I said I thought I knew
Give me back the days I never spent with you
I know our love is strong enough to never break
Taking up the chance, don't wanna be too late

Now we made it here, with no price to pay
There is only one thing I can say

Do you still feel like I'm the only one (who really loves you)
The only one to burn the flame that's deep inside
Do you still feel like I'm the only one (who really loves you)
The only one that gives you time
The only one that makes you mine
I hope I'm the only one

Who's in your heart
(The only one) who thinks that you can play the part
'Cause baby I'm the only who still believes in all that you say
That you do, that you love, that you choose (oh, oh)

Tell me now

Do you still feel like I'm the only one (who really loves you)
The only one to burn the flame that's deep inside
Do you still feel like I'm the only one (who really loves you)
The only one that gives you time
The only one that makes you mine
I hope I'm the only one

Do you still feel like I'm the only one (I'm the only one)
The only one to burn the flame that's deep inside
Do you still feel like I'm the only one (who really loves you)
