

Heavy

Gary Go

God I feel so heavy
You've been weighing down on me
Caught up in some panic
Don't you hear me falling
Now I'm on the other side of love
I see it for what it really was
And from the other side of love
I know I wasn't good enough
Now we're on the other side of love
I see I never gave enough
I see it for what it really was

Now I'm on the other side of love
Feeling so unready
For what's waiting for me
You tangle my heart
Aren't we in a funny place
Tangled up in worry, funny
So this is how you leave it
You lighten up my spirit
Only you can lighten up my spirit
Once more before you leave it
Lighten up my spirit
