

Chip Chip

Gary Lewis & The Playboys

From one little kiss and a lotta lovin'
You build a big mansion of love
High on a hill of happiness
With someone that you've been dreamin' of

You build a wall all around with a lotta lovin'
All around your mansion of love
Then one day you'll hear a strange little sound
Tryin' to tear your mansion down

Whoa, oh, oh
(Chip, chip) You tell a little lie
(Chip, chip) You make your baby cry
(Chip, chip) You cheat a little bit
(Chip, chip) You quarrel over it

Whoa, oh, oh
One day you're gonna discover
One little wrong leads to another
Chip, chip, a-chippin' away
Chippin' at your mansion of love

One little spark when it starts a-glowin'
Can warm a big mansion of love
One little wrong brings on the gloom
Puts a chill in every room

Whoa, oh, oh
(Chip, chip) You tell a little lie
(Chip, chip) You make your baby cry
(Chip, chip) You cheat a little bit
(Chip, chip) You quarrel over it

Whoa, oh, oh
One day you're gonna discover
One little wrong leads to another
Chip, chip, a-chippin' away
Chippin' at your mansion of love

Chip, chip, a-chippin' away
Chippin' at your mansion of love
Chip, chip, a-chippin' away
Chippin' at your mansion of love
Chip, chip
