

Go To Him

Gary Lewis & The Playboys

Though we're together now
I just don't belong somehow
'Cause you're thinking of when you used to love
I can tell, I can tell

Your mind is far away
Deep in dreams of yesterday
If he still loves you, and you love him, too
Go to him, go to him

And I'll step aside
Forget my pride
I'll hide all the hurt that I feel inside
And I'll understand
Go on back again
To him

Your mind is far away
Deep in dreams of yesterday
If he still loves you, and you love him, too
Go to him, go to him

And I'll step aside
Forget my pride
I'll hide all the hurt that I feel inside
And I'll understand
Go on back again
To him

And I'll step aside
Forget my pride
I'll hide all the hurt that I feel inside
And I'll understand
Go on back again
To him

Go on back to him
Go on back to him
