

Let Me Tell Your Fortune

Gary Lewis & The Playboys

Let me tell your fortune
Just give me your hand
I'll look in your future
And what fate has planned

Now you may think it's foolish
Just a guessing game
But let me tell your fortune
Listen just the same

I see someone in your life
His love for you he hides
Because of foolish pride
And what's more?
You'll be around the due
This love he can't reveal
Hoping no one was still
you be fool

He finds a way to tell you
And maybe now's the time
It's me in your fortune
Now please tell me mine

I see someone in your life
His love for you he hides
Because of foolish pride
And what's more?
You'll be around the due
This love he can't reveal
Hoping no one was still
you be fool

He finds a way to tell you
And maybe now's the time
It's me in your fortune
Now please tell me mine
