Sure Gonna Miss Her

Gary Lewis & The Playboys

I never did too much to make her stay here Words of love to her I'd never say I guess I learned a lesson when she walked out to stay

And I'm sure gonna miss her Sure gonna miss her I'm sure gonna miss her every day

I don't suppose I ever said, "I love you"

And I found out too late that wasn't right
I'm just now realizin' what I've lost that's why I'm cryin'

And I'm sure gonna miss her Sure gonna miss her I'm sure gonna miss her every night

I know I took her love for granted Guess you could say my love was blind Thought if she left by I could stand it Or else it didn't matter at the time

I heard she's found a guy that treats her better I hope he knows that he's a lucky guy I know the rumor's true because I saw her today

And I'm sure gonna miss her He was walking with her I'm sure gonna miss her, yes I am
