

If the Devil Made Whiskey

Gary Moore

If the devil made whisky,
He must have made my woman too.
If the devil made whisky,
He must have made my baby too.
Cause they both make you love 'em,
Then they make a fool of you.
Yeah.

If the devil made money,
He must have made my girl as well.
Ooh, if the devil made money,
He must have made my girl as well.
Cause they get a man in trouble,
Then they send you straight to hell.
Yeah.

If the devil was a woman,
He'd look exactly like my girl.
Ooh, if the devil was a woman,
He'd look exactly like my girl.
She get you hooked on her good lovin',
Then leavy you lonely in this world.
