You

Gary Moore

Sometimes when I look around At people who are lonely I feel a sense of sadness deep inside It makes me wonder how I got along Before I found you And what I`d do if you should turn around And say goodbye

'Cause baby you You`re what I`m living for I couldn't have asked for more Right from the moment that I found you I knew that you You were the one for me The one who could make me see This world could be a brighter place

Sometimes when I think about The friends I left behind me I feel a sense of sadness deep inside It makes me wonder how I knew That one day you would find me And what I`d do if you should turn around And say goodbye

'Cause baby you You`re what I`m living for I couldn't have asked for more Right from the moment that I found you I knew that you You were my brightest star And whether you`re close or far You`re always here inside my heart
