

It Will End Here (Edit)

Gary Numan

It begins here
In the silence
All our fears wrapped in hope
And wishful thinking
It begins here
And I will hold you
Like a breath held in time
As the end comes

Here we stand
So take my hand and
Watch the sunlight burn
Watch the sunlight burn

It will end here
In a moment
All our dreams turned to dust
As the wind cries
It will end here
But I have loved you
All the days of my life
And now life ends

Here we stand
So take my hand and
Watch the sunlight burn
Watch the sunlight burn

Here we stand
So take my hand and
Watch the sunlight burn
Watch the sunlight burn

Can you see?
Can you see?
Can you see me?
Can you see?

It will end here
It will end...
