Give In

Gary Puckett & The Union Gap

Give in and I'll show you a life worth living
Give love a break
For happiness sake
I'm trying to make you give in

I know that you're lonely
'Cause I've been there, too
Why keep running from me?
I'll be good to you

Give in and I'll show you a life worth living
For happiness sake
I'm trying to make you give in

If your life is empty
And going to waste
I'll take you so gently
Into my embrace

Give in and I'll show you a life worth living
For happiness sake
I'm trying to make you give in

Give in and I'll show you a life worth living
For happiness sake
I'm trying to make you give in

Give in and I'll show you a life worth living
For happiness sake
I'm trying to make you give in
