

Out In The Cold Again

Gary Puckett & The Union Gap

My sunny skies have blown away and left me lonely
The world I knew was made of tears and sadness only
Then came the sunshine
I felt the sunshine when you took my hand

Darling, when you said to me
The words so soft and tenderly
You won't be back out in the cold again
You were lonely once before
But it won't happen anymore
You won't be back out in the cold again

And then you lost that look of love and left without me
I taste the tears and then I slowly look about me
Gone is the sunshine
I felt the raindrops in my empty hand

Now I'm left with a warm embrace
The wind and rain upon my face
Now I'm back out in the cold again
I was lonely once before
You said you'd love me evermore
Now I'm back out in the cold again

The wind and rain upon my face
Now I'm back out in the cold again
I was lonely once before
You said you'd love me evermore
Now I'm back out in the cold again
