

Drinking Again

Gary Stewart

The piano is lonely the crowd left with the band
The thick smoke is settling I'm drinking again
The jukebox is silent no more will it spin
I spent all my money and I'm drinking again
The barstools are lonely they're my only friends
Cause they understand why I'm drinking again

I'm alone with these mem'ries she's with my best friend
They married this evening and I'm drinking again
[steel]
I'll leave now you're closing fill it once more to the brim
I'll be back tomorrow cause I'm drinking again
