

Hand Me Another

Gary Stewart

Hand me another and I'll swallow that mother
And I'll be as high as the sun ever rose
We'd had a showdown and I'm feeling lowdown
So hand me another of those

Hey bartender I sure ain't no one
And I ain't looking for no sympathy
Just a way of forgetting how long I've been letting

That woman make a fool out of me

Look I'm shaking from all I've been taking
She's tearing me right away from my heart
Hey bartender I sure ain't no winner
I knew that woman was no good from the start

So hand me another and I'll swallow that mother...
