

Under Your Spell

Gary Wright

I tried to touch and to hold something that never grows old
I tried to feel more alive to a calling deep inside
When you gave me hope I started to live out my dreams
Touching the stars I felt I had everything

Cos you captured my heart
I'm under your spell, you deeply inspired me
Yes, you captured my soul
When you broke through my shell
You set my spirit free

Distant lights in the dust whispering never lose trust
Fresh snow on the ground hiding dreams yet to be found
The moments and hours the sun and the cool autumn showers
To give is to grow to love really deep is to know

Cos you captured my heart
I'm under your spell, you deeply inspired me
Yes, you captured my soul
When you broke through my shell
You set my spirit free
