

Closure

GASHI

(I'm afraid that one day I'm going to wake up
And then you're just gonna be You're gonna vanish)

Baby, you're making me nauseous
This wedding ring, yeah I bought it
Everything that you wanted
Heartbreak was the coldest
Falling like October
Can't believe that it's over
I can still feel closure
Everyday I'm getting closer

Closure, closure
Everyday I'm getting closer
Closure, closure
Everyday I'm getting closer

You make it so hard for me to move
No this ain't love, I'm such a fool
Look at just what you put me through
Pain, I never thought you'd be so fake
But I guess I'm just the one to blame
Saw it all and I still stayed

Baby, you're making me nauseous
This wedding ring, yeah I bought it
Everything that you wanted
Heartbreak was the coldest
Falling like October
Can't believe that it's over
I can still feel closure
Everyday I'm getting closer

Closure, closure
Everyday I'm getting closer
Closure, closure
Everyday I'm getting closer

I spend my heart on you
Emptied out my pockets
But I wish I would of known better
I wish I would of known better, yeah
Wish I would of known, known
Yeah, yeah...
I wish I would of known better
