

Doubted

GASHI

My own father told me GASHI you would never be shit
Didn't bother chased a dollar ima be rich
Hoes quick to holla going down like a secret
Word to my mama in college was on the deans list
Smart motherfucker they say "I'm lazy"
They tried to play me now is stright up fuck you pay me
Said I was crazy was gon work with ye and jayz
And I won't stop til my life is more sweeter than a pastry (ahhh)
That's just the way it go
Yesterday my time was slow
I was broke
Fans asking "would you ever sell ya soul!?"
Shit I don't know
I probably would, do anything to get my mama up out this hood
Kids you knew your whole life for that price they probably would Blast ya face infront of ya mama so knock on wood
Misunderstood
Nobody understands
That's why I spit enough heat to give my mama a tan

You liven up a lie
Yes you liven up a lie!
Cause you ain't about it
Ohhhhhhhhhhh
You don't know about my life
Cause everyday I got to fight
And they all doubt it (ohhhhhh)

Don't let them slow you down
Is what I tell myself
Fuck signing now
I ain't trying to get shelved
Like some baby pictures
Sorry mr
You don't know about this culture
You calling me a wigga
Having me rap like jigga
Dressing me like a hipster
Having me thing yoU God
Like you roll with rza
Forget my mom and sister
Blow my figgas on these strippers
When I can go to AFRICA help a kid and make a difference
Two ears one mouth
Listen twice as much as you speak
Before we run up in your house
Having you losing all of your teeth
They made those side walks for you
Cause you ain't made for these streets
At my shows they all sneeze
Cause the truth is what I speak
And I'm single
Cause I ain't trying to date a basic chick
With a loud mouth who need to zip it up and lace it quick
What happens between us stay between us that vegas shit
If you know a doubter point them out and play this shit

Ohh don't let them bring you down don't let them doubt you!

You liven up a lie

Yes you liven up a lie!

Cause you ain't about it

Ohhhhhhhhhhh

You don't know about my life

Cause everyday I got to fight

And they all doubt it (ohhhhh)
