GASHI

Yeah, I wake up and I smile, cause I waited for a while, now I cannot waste no time, alright

I'm in London, you know that I went London
Keep it 100, I just want the hunnids
In a brand new Lambo, I do 100
Bad bitches in here, you know that I'm fuckin'
I'm in London, you know that I went London
Keep it 100, we just want the hunnids
In a brand new Lambo, we do 100
All these bitches in here, you know that I'm fuckin'

Lifted, hella twisted, hella biscuits, hella gifted
I just banged the car to fuck your hella fifties
Bagged about a hundred just to shell a christening
Oh shit, hella bitches
I am never entertaining any disses
Way I ran up on the game was very vicious
Like, nigga get me 20 fries and 20 dippers

I might become Carter, I might become 50
Brand new Lambo, I might do 150
I can't be just back and forth, I can't be some frisbee
I can't be them cartoon youths, I can't become Disney
Madder than greasy grizzly youths, but can't become grizzly
Waited so long, straight lines, can't become squiggly
Isn't he world champion now, isn't he?
Yeah, yeah, look back, what's behind me, just think of me

I'm in London, you know that I went London
Keep it 100, I just want the hunnids
In a brand new Lambo, I do 100
Bad bitches in here, you know that I'm fuckin'

All these bitches in here, you know that I'm fuckin'

Switchin' my flow and I switch my hoes like rides
Roll up another one, you know we get high

Put that money in my hand, don't you waste mine
Ain't no shortcuts, you know that I put in time

Yeah, I wake up and I smile, cause I waited for a while
Now I cannot waste no time, alright, alright
