Interlude

GASHI

Why don't you see me like I want you to?
I tried and I tried to give up, still can't get over you

Why don't you see me like I want you to?
I tried and I tried to give up (Give up on your, baby, give up)

You used to be everything I dreamed of
Now you tired, I can't believe my love went to waste
Only call when you need love
But then go away to start a new game

You just wanna go home when the attention is not
All up on you 'cause you need your name in their mouths
Never want to see me win when you're not involved
Don't pretend you see it, oh, we don't believe you at all

Said that you show love, but you don't mean it
You just help yourself and that's the reason
Now you lost my trust, so I'm leaving

You're so good at pretending
You're so good at pretending
