

Intro/Hadia

GASHI

And, boy, I never lie
Never lie

I'm still chasing my dream
They say that change ain't believable
But I'm still finding a way
To open the gates to Heaven
Hadia, I need ya
I love ya, mama, I miss ya
I'm fightin' these demons, these Hollywood schemers
These face tattoos, they changed me
Now where do I go? What do I know?
They say that they came to get inside the show
Wait front row, they see these this tears in my eyes
Slowly losing, I'm losing my mind
And I'm crying

Oh I, oh I
I've followed my heart and lost my mind
Oh I, oh I
I've followed my heart and lost my mind

Step-by-step as I take these stairs
Now I'm everywhere as I watch them stare
They never sent a elevator for me
Did this shit all for my mother
Did this for my sister and my brother
Them cold nights without no covers
I did this for my worried father
Started from the real bottom
Never had, now I got 'em
Lottery ticket from the devil
Got the numbers in my pocket
I'm a winner, I'm a winner
I'm a winner, I'm a winner
I'm a sinner, I'm a sinner
Hope I make it into heaven
