

Keep Me Alive

GASHI

Yeah, yeah, oh

I only think of you when I'm high
All the time, all the time
I can't dam it up, feel like I'm dying
Keep me alive, all the time

I swear this was gon' be my last time
But I keep coming right back every night
I only think about you 24/7
I been through hell and I feel like you my heaven
So much change
I met you when I wasn't somethin'
I'm starting to miss my old ways
'Cause you don't look at me the same
So much change
I met you when I wasn't somethin'
I'm starting to miss my old ways
'Cause you don't look at me the same

Ain't waiting on nothing, nothing
I'm tired of feeling like nothing, 'cause I'm something
Ain't waiting for nothing, nothing
'Cause you make me feel like I'm something, yeah, I'm something
'Cause you know that

I only think of you when I'm high
All the time, all the time
I can't dam it up, feel like I'm dying
Keep me alive, all the time
I only think of you when I'm high
All the time, all the time
I can't dam it up, feel like I'm dying
Keep me alive, all the time
