

Madness

GASHI

Feel I'm drowning in madness
I'm in love with this actress
She goes down for the passes
Now she's in love with my mattress
She said she won't leave my crib
And her friends child gone be my kid
I can't front she the finest
She run away from her daddy

Said she's running away
It's a new day
Don't care what you say
She wanna drown in the madness
Sipping tequila
Ain't no one realer
She said come and see her
I don't believe her

She don't wanna get drunk on her own
She just wanna take flicks on her phone
She just wanna get likes and get known
She just wanna lay up in my home
Spilling that vodka and tripping on me
Do another line then say put it all on me
I don't think that she will ever wanna leave
She keep on drinking till she fall asleep
Tearing up my home
Then she want passcodes to my phone
I just thought I'd beat it up and get gone
I guess I will never be alone

Said she's running away
It's a new day
Don't care what you say
She wanna drown in the madness
Sipping tequila
Ain't no one realer
Call up the dealer
She cops till it kills her
She said she wanted some yay
Ain't talking Kanye
Don't care what you say
She wanna drown in the madness

She wanna drown in the madness
She wanna drown in the madness
She wanna drown in the madness
She wanna drown in the madness

Sipping tequila
Ain't no one realer
Sipping tequila
Ain't no one realer
I don't believe her

Sipping tequila
Sipping tequila
Sipping tequila
Sipping tequila
