

Pretending

GASHI

Sick of pretending that we get along
Sick of you thinkin that I'm always wrong
And I'm sick how you never want pick up you phone
And I'm sick of waking up and feeling alone

Realize u the one I know that I'm missin
Pray that one day you wake up and you listen
Don't get it twisted I am still tripping
Hard to move on when I saw you every minute
You the only one I wanna see you right now
Popped another pill I'm bout' to sleep right now
Do you love me?, answer right now
Tell the whole world when I'm not around
When I'm not around, tell em all about it
Tell em all about it, cause I'm feeling like I'm drowning
And you the reason why I'm drowning

Sick of pretending that we get along
Sick of you thinkin that I'm always wrong
And I'm sick how you never want pick up you phone
And I'm sick of waking up and feeling alone
Sick of pretending
Sick of pretending
Sick of pretending
Sick of pretending

Yo heart is yours and you know that my heart is mine
Everytime we phone you know that it took your sad
Ain't that shit run, ain't that shit run
You look into my eyes say that you be by my side
I just love my 9 to 5 doing 95
And now I am speeding hoping that I'm crashing down
My neck about to break that there so much that's on my mind
I hope you now these wonder feelings I had inside
