

Silent Depression

GASHI

I don't know who I wanna be
Not me
Who do you think you are?
I guess I'm a mess today

Silent depression
Silent depression, aw

I'm screaming like the men in my head
Wanting me dead
I'm turning red, like the devil himself
Life is so short, I was just born
They cut the cord and threw me right out the door
Now I'm at war

Silent depression, aw
Something that will never be cured
Feeling so strange, I don't feel my age
Silent depression, aw
Wonder if I'll ever be pure
Falling from grace, I'm all out of faith

Signed to a ball and a chain
Like Elvis in RCA
A prisoner on this stage
I'm trying to escape, I'm trying to escape

This silent depression, aw
Feeling so strange, I don't feel my age
Silent depression
Falling from grace, I'm all out of faith
The world so afraid, when you can't make mistakes
