GASHI

Someone who truly loves you sticks around no matter what
Fell for you so easy having trouble getting up
Was told never keep none of your emotions bottled up
Poured it out with no coup sitting here I'm dry as fuck
Looking thirsty
Claiming I did you dirty saying "no you don't deserve"
"You don't show me love"
I did and it hurt me
Phone calls getting shorter
You ain't have much to say
Every time I came over
Looked at me like a MONDAY
Wasn't the type of guy
Never cheated
Yes I lied
You did too so don't you cry!
I made you so now your mine
Wish that I can read your mind
You so Jekyll quick to hyde (hide)
Can't text first got too much pride
On thin ice I ain't letting it slide

We were close friends got our crush
Relationship had our trust
Now we barely friends and its all fucked up
We strangers now no more wassup

I miss the person I thought I knew
Look in to my eyes this isnt you
Your a stranger a stranger a stranger in my room
Your a stranger a stranger a stranger I once knew

She said:
Now you listen to me
You left me all alone
For some hoes at a time when I needed you most
When I ignore you its a sign that I need you close
If you love me I think its best you just let me go
Cause you left I want the truth forget the lies
My hearts been stabbed cheated fried broken and I still survived
Burned my wings I ain't letting it fly
I was always there always on time
Texted you books stayed up all night just to get one word replies!?
Nah fuck a try I deserve a better guy
Hate to lose you I can't lie
If you were a tear in my eye I swear to God id never cry
Seen myself as your bride
But I wasn't your main priority so now its time for me to say GOODBYE

We were close friends got our crush
Relationship had our trust
Now we barely friends and its all fucked up
We strangers now no more wassup

I miss the person I thought I knew
Look in to my eyes this isnt you
Your a stranger a stranger a stranger in my room

Your a stranger a stranger a stranger I once knew
