GASHI

I've been missing me
It's so hard to see
Never thought that you would disappear
In your lie
I'm still searching, but
Don't know what I keep searching for
Don't know what I keep looking for
Don't know why I'm emotional
I guess it's all obtainable

Girl is you
Is all I want
No I don't need
Nobody's love
And is you
That's what I want
On top of me
It won't get long
Girl is you
Is all I want
No I don't need
Nobody's love
And is you
That's all I want
I've stopped searching, when
I finally got you in my arms

Tell me the truth
Don't you lie to my face, baby
(Don't you lie to me)
I wish to pass [?]
Tell me who you are
Cause I'm amazed
Still can't believe that I'm not dead
I keep on searching for myself
Can't even trust my closest friends
(Tell me who you are)

Girl is you
Is all I want
No I don't need
Nobody's love
And is you
That's what I want
On top of me
It won't get long
Girl is you
Is all I want
No I don't need
Nobody's love
And is you
That's all I want
I've stopped searching, when
I finally got you in my arms

(Girl is you
Is all I want

No I don't need
Nobody's love
And is you
That's all I want
I've stopped searching, when
