Boiled Over

Gatecreeper

Patiently it waits for me
Taking over slowly
Permeating the void in my soul
Filling me with anger

Bleed for your master
Free yourself from apathy
Disdain boiling over
Visions of hatred in my stare

I lay myself in shallow flames
My self-restraint is set ablaze
It burns my skin from the inside
Exterminating living breath
Consumed by dread
I let it burn

Bleed for your master
Free yourself from apathy
Disdain boiling over
Visions of hatred in my stare

Lay, let your body melt away
Lay, let your body melt away

Impulses giving away
I can't remember who I am
Pollution in my bones
I let my body boil away

Lay, let your body melt away
